

The Pittsfield Cooperative Bank Announces Promotions

AUGUST 18, 2021, PITTSFIELD – The Pittsfield Cooperative Bank has announced the promotions of two employees. Julie Coe will now serve the bank as their Commercial Loan Administrative Officer while Cindy Perrea will serve as Loan Servicing Officer.

Coe – in this role, will be responsible for all incoming business lending and commercial real estate applications, preparation of commercial loan documentation, loan closing, and portfolio management. She holds a bachelor’s degree from the Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts. An employee of the bank since 2005, Coe resides in Cheshire with her husband Dan, son Hayden and daughter Ava. Julie is active with local theatre.

Perrea – An employee of the Pittsfield Cooperative Bank Since 2008, began her career as a teller quickly moving into the loan department filling various roles until her promotion to Loan Servicing Officer. She holds a bachelor’s degree from the Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts. A Berkshire Native, Cindy resides in Hinsdale with her husband Eric and dog Toby. She enjoys spending time with her daughters Lindsay and Erica.

“Banking is an intimate, personal business. These two employees are experienced bankers who are familiar and trusted faces within our community,” stated Jay Anderson, President and CEO of the Pittsfield Cooperative Bank. The Co-op is not the biggest financial institution in the Berkshires. But there is something to be said about being able to bank with those you know and trust in this little bank that accomplishes big things.
