

Pittsfield Cooperative Bank Names Josh Cutler Cash Management Officer

DECEMBER 9, 2021, PITTSFIELD – The Pittsfield Cooperative Bank is pleased to name Josh Cutler as Cash Management Officer. In this role, Josh will develop and provide effective cash management solutions for the Pittsfield Cooperative Bank’s commercial clients. He will be located in the main office of the Bank at 70 South St. in Pittsfield.

Josh has over 10 years of experience in the financial industry, most recently serving as Assistant Branch Manager for the bank at the Dalton Ave location. Active in the community, Josh is the Immediate Past President of Temple Anshe Amunim, serves as treasurer of the Eagles Band Board of Directors, and is the co-chair of the Hilda Vallin Feigenbaum Memorial Foundation Lecture Series. Josh also served as a member of the Pittsfield School Committee from 2014-2020.

Josh was a 2018 recipient of the Berkshire Community College Foundation’s 40 Under Forty award. Josh also enjoys playing local softball and plays the saxophone and guitar. A graduate of the University of Massachusetts - Amherst, Josh lives in Pittsfield with his son, James.

“We are delighted to have Josh serve in this role,” said Matthew Lauro, Vice President of Commercial Lending. “In his years with the bank, Josh has developed strong relationships with our commercial customers, and we look forward to using his energy and expertise to help us grow our cash management program as well as our commercial portfolio,” Lauro added.
